Attorneys for Defendant

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON
EUGENE DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

PIROUZ SEDAGHATY,

Defendant.

No. 6:05-cr-60008-AA

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR RELEASE PENDING CONCLUSION OF APPEAL

Defendant Pirouz Sedaghaty, through counsel, Lawrence Matasar and Federal Public Defender Steven T. Wax, hereby moves this Court, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3142

(b) and (c), for release on his own recognizance pending conclusion of this appeal. Mr. Sedaghaty was released on conditions for nearly four years during the pendency of this case. He voluntarily surrendered to custody in February 2012 following imposition of sentence. On August 23, 2013, the United States Court of Appeals reversed the conviction in this matter and remanded the case to the district court. Coincidentally, on August 23, 2013, Mr. Sedaghaty was released from the Northwest Regional Reentry Center to home confinement for the remaining three months of the incarceration portion of his sentence. He is currently residing with his wife at their apartment in Portland and working at Elephants Delicatessen. He remains, however, under the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Prisons subject to GPS monitoring, to financial conditions requiring that he pay the Reentry Center for monitoring him, and, he believes, to the obligation to continue paying restitution. The custodial portion of Mr. Sedaghaty's sentence is due to be completed on or about November 22, 2013.

The government has filed for an extension until November 5, 2013, to determine whether it will file a motion with the Court of Appeals seeking rehearing.

Mr. Sedaghaty seeks release on his own recognizance with the following conditions:

1. Advise the pre-trial office of any change in address;
2. Advise the pre-trial office of any change in his employment; and,
3. Refrain from any criminal conduct.

AUSA Kelly Zusman has stated that the government has no objection to this motion. Chief Pre-Trial Services Officer Brian Crist has stated that he recommends release without any other conditions.

Respectfully submitted this 30th day of August, 2013.
